Wardlaw, who is chairman of the liberty loan executive committee of the Sixth federal reserve district, with headquarters in Atlanta, Ga., will attend the meeting and talk over the plans for the coming campaign. Mrs. Sam Phillips, chairman of the campaign for Tennessee, will also address the workers.

The organization of the executive committee of the campaign and the out-of-town chairmen will be practically the same as that of the third liberty loan campaign. Silas W. The out-of-town chairmen who have been invited to attend Mr. Nottingham's meeting are as follows:

H. W. Sumner, Warburg.
E. M. Shelley, Johnson City.
B. L. Sadler, Oneida.
W. M. Cameron, South Pittsburg.
H. E. Featherston, Decherd.

Mrs. Ochs will appoint a local chairman to have charge of the campaign in Hamilton county, including Chattanooga proper. In addition to this, she will appoint her zone chairmen at once and notify them to attend the meeting Tuesday.

It is the desire of Mr. Nottingham to have every county chairman present at this meeting next Tuesday, as they will be instructed as to how to handle the entire campaign. After the meeting of the chairmen Tuesday morning, the party will go by automobile to Signal Mountain inn, where a luncheon will be given at 1 o'clock for the men and women chairmen. Here several liberty loan workers will be present and address those present.

ELECTRICAL MEN PLACED ON PRIORITY LIST

Washington, Aug. 22.—Electrical workers and manufacturers have been placed on the preferential list for priorities, the war industries board announced today. Electrical men will receive preferential treatment, however, only if they limit their output to essential products, the board stated. This chemically reached after a series of conferences between representatives of the electrical men and the board.

Reliable Method of Hair Care

Hair is by far the most conspicuous thing about a man and is probably the most easily damaged by bad or careless treatment. If we are very careful in hair washing, we will have virtually no hair troubles. An especially fine shampoo for this purpose, one that brings out all the natural beauty of the hair, that dissolves and entirely removes all dandruff, excess oil and dirt, can easily be used at trifling expense by simply dissolving a teaspoonful of Carthor (which you can get at any drugstore), in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply to the top of the head. This chemically dissolves all impurities and creates a soothing, cooling lather. Rinsing leaves the scalp spotlessly clean, soft and pliant, while the hair takes on the glossy richness of natural color, also a fluffiness which makes it seem much heavier than it is. After Carthor shampoo, arranging the hair is a pleasure. (Adv.)

LOCAL BOY DESCRIBES COUNTRY "OVER THERE"

Wheat Is Principal Grain and Farms Have Water Running Through Them.

Homefolks have received an interesting letter from Eric M. Burk, who is

ERIC M. BURK.

He is in France to Do His Bit Toward Freeing the World From the Curse of Autocracy.

"Over there" with the headquarters detachment of the Sixth division. He said that he was well, but had been on the constant move for a few weeks. At the time of writing he was located in a small village. He explained that most of the people there were well along in years or very small children, as all the others had been killed or sent to military service. "Buildings show considerable wear and tear from age," he wrote, "and, of course, some from war. And this country very pretty, and notice their principal grain is wheat. Each farm has water running through it, and I notice that most farms have it running near the houses. All houses and buildings are of stone and concrete and on my journey I don't recollect seeing even one frame house."

"Railroads over here are on a very much smaller type, but they get you along all right. There are a few government locomotives from the U. S. A. They are stenciled on the side 'U. S. A.' Young Burk urged his homefolks to worry about him, saying that he would do the best he could or knew how. His father, Mr. Burk, is a manager of the service of Uncle Sam, was assistant station accountant for the Southern railway.

35 AUTOS LOADED WITH LIQUOR CAUGHT

Drag Net Thrown Out for Bootleggers Results in Big Haul.

It was learned here Thursday morning that thirty-five automobiles are tied up at Nashville by the federal authorities. The automobiles contain whisky and will be held, together with their contents, until the trial in the federal court. It seems that the shooting of an officer by a bootlegger was the cause of the entire trouble. Somewhere near Lexington a bootlegger shot an officer and made his escape. A blockade was then thrown out for the man, who escaped in an automobile, and thirty-five automobiles were held up and each contained liquor headed for Chattanooga or some other town. Traffic along the highway leading from Lexington to Nashville has been unusually heavy since the trains have begun to be watched and grips searched. It is stated in Nashville that two automobiles and twenty-five cases of whisky were grabbed by the officers near Ridge Top. Two of the cars are said to be owned by Shep Conner, of Chattanooga, and it is understood that they were headed for Chattanooga with the contraband goods.

LIMITED SERVICE MEN TO BE SENT AS CLERKS

This Action Taken Because of Extra Work Entailed on Exemption Boards.

According to an order received by the exemption boards, young men in limited service are to be inducted into the various clerkships of the exemption boards. The department took this step owing to the almost impossibility of securing clerks for the boards. Young men in Class 1 and those certified as qualified for special work are to be eligible to serve as clerks. The young men selected will wear the uniform and be soldiers in Uncle Sam's army as they are doing now. The enactment of the new law raising the draft age will necessitate a vast amount of board work and these clerks are a necessity. Details of the instructions concerning this order will be made public shortly. The men will either be inducted as privates or non-commissioned officers. Where the boards do not possess the required number of men others will be taken from one county to another. The order calls for the selecting of the men from the list of limited service men as they stand in order.

DENTAL CLINIC AND POSTOFFICE BUILDINGS

Oglethorpe Will Have Latest and Most Efficient Oral Surgery Equipment.

Among the new buildings which are being erected in the park, two of which are of special interest, are the new dental clinic buildings which are being put up, one just north of the Elmore post office, and the other near the old R. O. T. C. grounds. While these buildings are constructed of the usual wood common to all the cantonment buildings, they will be fitted with the very latest and most modern dental equipment, and will be used both for all dental work which may have to be done for the soldiers, and as instruction and clinic buildings for the men in the dental officers' training school at Camp Greenleaf. These buildings will be ready for use by the last of next week.

A new and larger postoffice building is also being erected in Camp Greenleaf, just across the road from the building now in use. The new postoffice. The increased volume of the soldiers' mail necessitated the erection of the new building, since the majority of the mail sent to the park passes through two offices, one at Camp Greenleaf and the other at Civic Center.

CONTROL OF FEDERAL COAL COMPANY DIVIDED EQUALLY

Reorganization Marks End of Litigation Which Has Been Running in Federal Courts.

C. M. Preston, trustee for the Federal Coal company, which has eleven mines with 20,000 acres of coal fields, valued at $1,600,000, at Pineville, Ky., has sold to Tennessee interests headed by T. R. Preston of this city, half of the property of the company for a consideration of $800,000, and the other half to Kentucky interests for a similar consideration. This leaves the control of the company equally divided between Tennessee and Kentucky. The following are the officers of the new company, which has been incorporated at $1,300,000: T. R. Preston, president; F. L. Underwood, secretary-treasurer; E. R. Thompson, secretary-treasurer. The board of directors will be composed of G. H. Miller, F. L. Underwood, E. R. Thompson, C. C. Moore and T. R. Preston. With the sale of this property litigation which have been pending in the federal courts of Kentucky in regard to the controlling interest in the company, will be settled. This company is considered to be one of the largest coal mining companies in the south. Officers of the company before the reorganization marked by the sale were: T. R. Preston, president; F. R. Martin, vice-president; F. R. Smith, secretary-treasurer; and R. C. Fitzgerald, sales manager. Stocks and bonds of the Federal Coal company, which started out as the Continental Coal company, are held by interests in Chattanooga and in other cities throughout Tennessee and Kentucky.

HOTEL PATTEN ON WESTERN FRONT

Joshua C. Morgan Writes to His Father With Characteristic French Humor.

Joshua C. Morgan, a Chattanooga boy who is "over there" with a machine gun battalion, has a keen sense of humor.

Over his dugout is a sign which reads: "Hotel Patten, Eleventh and Market streets." In a letter to his father, James A. Morgan, the young man described his experiences when he came out of the trenches the night before writing his letter.

"Believe me, dad, we had some time coming out," he wrote. "We were shelled all the way. We had to walk about ten feet and then dive into a ditch. You can hear the shells coming over. We would then walk a little farther and duck again. When I get back home and am walking along the street with you, don't think anything if you see me dive into the gutter, because we are getting the ducking habit. It is funny after it is all over. Everybody laughs at the other fellow."

Night before last we were on a cross street and the Germans shelled it. The first shell burst just above our heads. We didn't have time to get away. We had to fall flat on our faces. Then we walked on our hands and knees for about ten feet. Talk about running to a dugout! I'll bet I made a mile a minute. I was away from that place half a minute before the next shrapnel shell came over. It went right over the spot where we had been standing and burst just behind our heads. We were having a jolly good time of it over here. The good part about the shells is that when they burst they fly upward like a spray and if you are not too close you can fall flat on your face and they will go over you."

Young Morgan said they did their own cooking while they were on the firing line. He explained that the Germans in "no man's land" were like rats and stayed in their dugouts.

He said there were three things he wanted to do before he comes home. He wanted to go over the top in a tank, to go up in an airplane and a balloon and then cross the ocean in a submarine.

He assured home folks that in spite of the shells and gas fire he was "all together" and in good health.

AMERICAN TRUST ASKS DIVISION "REPOSE MONEY"

Sues Catholic Church for Funds
Insufficient to Purchase
Peace for Souls.

A bill was filed in the chancery court Thursday morning by The American Trust and Banking company against the SS. Peter and Paul's church, and Rev. F. T. Sullivan. The bill asks that certain real estate belonging to the estate of Mrs. Mary Hagerty, who died May 31, 1917, be sold and the proceeds distributed among the creditors of the estate. The bill claims that the proceeds from the estate are insufficient to carry out the will made by Mrs. Hagerty. The will bequeathed $100 to Father Sullivan, $200 to the church for the repose of the soul of the deceased and the remainder of the estate to the church. The bill says the estate cannot pay the outstanding liabilities among which is a debt of $227.62 the deceased owed the complainants.

WALTER HAMPTON MUCH IMPROVED

Doctor Requests That Friends
Refrain From Too Much Calling Up Over 'Phone.

Walter Hampton has a chance for recovery. A report from Newell's infirmary shortly before noon Thursday was to the effect that during the last twelve hours there has been a decided change for the better in Mr. Hampton's condition.

Aided by a strong constitution and a remarkable will power, the patient, who is one of the best known men in Chattanooga, has made a splendid fight for life and health. He feared Wednesday that he was about to lose out as he grew gradually worse during the day, and relatives, fearing the worst, gathered at the infirmary. Early in the evening he began to improve, however, and has continued to do so.

Mr. Hampton underwent an operation for appendicitis last Saturday morning and since that time has been operated on twice.

Owing to the press of duty at the hospital, the request is made that friends of Mr. Hampton, during the next two or three days, watch the daily papers for reports of his condition instead of calling at the hospital or telephoning.
